

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY

INTERNATIONAL LDS MISSIONARY AND SCHOLARSHIP DEFERMENT APPLICATION

To defer enrollment and scholarship (if applicable) without reapplying, the following conditions should be met:

1. Be admitted as a regular day school, degree seeking student at Brigham Young University.
2. If you are a current BYU student, enter the Missionary Training Center (MTC) before the end of next semester (fall or winter) following your last day school enrollment. If you are deferring admission before attending BYU day school, you should enter the MTC during the semester to which you have been admitted.
3. Do not attend or enroll at any college or university between leaving and returning to BYU.
4. Must not be on academic dismissal from BYU.
5. Complete a full mission and receive an ecclesiastical endorsement from your mission president. Failure to complete the mission, for any reason (medical, etc), will void the deferment form and require a re-application to BYU.

NOTE: Following your mission, you must enroll at Brigham Young University within a given time period. The following shows when you must enroll.

Return from mission:	Enroll no later than:
October-April	Fall semester
May-September	Winter semester

If you are registered for a future semester or term, but will be unable to attend due to your mission, you are responsible for discontinuing from the courses prior to leaving the university.

After receiving your mission call and before entering the Missionary Training Center, return completed form to:
